

Committee Members – Services Design Working Group (SDWG)

- John Higham and Pat Estabrooks—previous Mayors of Sackville, NB, serve as Co-Chairs of RHAG while Margaret Tusz-King and Pat are Co-Chairs of the Memramcook-Tantramar Community Task Force.
- Margaret Tusz-King, former Sackville Counsellor, is co-founder of the Open Sky Co-Operative, Coordinator of the Summer Institute for Accessible Employment, Mount Allison University, and a highly successful community organizer
- Dr. Ross Thomas is SDWG Co-chair, retired Sackville Physician, and long-standing advocate for Tantramar health care.
- Judy Morison, SDWG Co-chair, has twenty years health care experience in three provinces -- with ICU and Occupational Health and Safety in private industry and government. Judy also ran her own business providing occupational health services.
- Susan Plewes has extensive health care experience in three provinces, with twenty years experience in the governance and restructure of health care delivery in Ontario. Currently she is a director at Albert House Hospice, SENB.
- Anne Comfort, VP of International & Student Affairs –Mount Allison University is a knowledgeable advocate for the importance of quality health service for Mount Allison students.
- Bill Carroll is an experienced data specialist with a wide range of data management experience working with large organisations.
- Barbara Foulds has an extensive knowledge of health education and board governance. She is a retired Dean of Health Sciences at the University of Ottawa, and Board member of the Canadian Association of Schools of Nursing, and of the Health Integration Network in Ottawa.
- Ngoc Hyunh, is VP of the Mount Allison Student Union (MASU)
- Dr. Catherine Johnston, a Sackville physician, is active in the physician recruitment process in the Tantramar region.
- Richard LeMay, is Director of Community Health for the Horizon Health Network
- Nancy Parker, On-site Operations Lead SMH, Horizon Health Network – is a very active in recruiting nursing staff for SMH and evaluating efficiencies of SMH services.
- Jean-Pierre (JP) Savoie, is a VP Ambulance New Brunswick, Medavie Health Services
- Katherine Buchanan, Manager of Primary Care Horizon Health Network--the Sackville region falls under her portfolio