RE: Right to Information and Protection Privacy

Mr. Wark:

I acknowledge receipt of your RTIPPA request dated June 30, 2026. As per your email you have requested the following documents:

"Report and recommendations of VanBuskirk Law, Saint John, NB concerning the firm's external, independent investigation of continuing turmoil and conflict within Sackville Fire and Rescue with any redactions in those records that are needed to protect privacy and confidentiality."

Your request for the above information is being denied under Chapter R-10.6 Subsection 20 (1)(a)(b) of the Right to Information and Protection of Privacy Act, which states:

Chapter R-10.6 Subsections 20 (1)(a)(b)

The head of a public body shall refuse to disclose information to an applicant that would reveal
(a) the substance of records made by an investigator providing advice or recommendations of the investigator in relation to a harassment investigation or a personnel investigation,
(b) the substance of other records relating to the harassment investigation or the personnel investigation,

If you are not satisfied with this decision, you may file a complaint with the Ombud as per section 67(1)(a)(i) or referring the matter to the Court of King's Bench as per section 65(1)(a). Complaints need to be filed within 40 business days.

Sincerely,

Chris Hill
Assistant Clerk
